

FATHER'S GOSPEL

them and the children of the lamb shall also overcome them for the lamb is the King of kings and Lord of lords.

I personally do not know who this lamb is, but He, the Lamb, has overcome them and you also have overcome for great is the name written on your foreheads.

I do not imagine that after hearing this gospel you will continue to ask such questions as, why do people hate Brotherhood? It is written that they shall wage war with the Lamb and the lamb shall overcome them for he is the King of kings and Lord of lords. His followers too will overcome them because they are the chosen and the faithful.

Reason within yourselves, a situation where you do not know a person and have not done him any wrong yet this fellow hates you immensely, he curses you and does all manners of things to annoy you and does not want to see you at all. Have you not realised that this is the manifestation of the word of God? All their powers have been subdued and presently they have started retracing their steps. Before long, all of them will be quietened. It does not matter how weighty your tribulations are but from the moment you are baptised, you have overcome.

People initiate into secret societies, and prepare concoctions and do all manners of things but their problems remain. Whenever they leave all these things, denounce their membership of secret societies and accept baptism, all their problems are over and they have overcome even as the lamb has overcome for he is the King of kings and Lord of lords.

Right from your birth, have you heard or seen any person who has no juju, does not subscribe to any secret society and does not prepare concoctions yet he goes about his business in life without any problems, and without any hindrance? It is only that the water with which you were baptised takes away every problem of yours and I ask you what is in the water? Or do you imagine that this is the work of man? No, this is not done by just any man for this is the reign of the King of kings. The faith you have is the saving-grace for us. It is not because we are righteous, neither is it because of our good works but only because of your faith in him.

However, you have not given him his glory yet and you do not even recognise him. Therein lies the only problem of the whole world. Again, that you do not know him is not of your own making but of his own making. Whenever it pleases him, he will reveal himself to you but first, must the world wage war against him, and this is what we are witnessing today. The lamb shall overcome them and straighten out all things but how this will come about I do not know and you would not know either.

You are therefore not to suggest anything or have any plans of your own or make any contributions for, when the time comes the Lamb shall be in all and will be responsible for all things.

Do you not realise that, the war waged is not with you but with the Lamb? You have no problems with your feeding, clothing and other things for the lamb is everything to you and he is before and behind you.

Brethren, I do not intend to take you much further, a stroke of the cane is sufficient unto the wise. He who has ears let him hear. May God bless His Holy Words. Amen.

CONGRATULATIONS

Your manifestation on this earth plane has opened a new chapter in the fulfilment of our joy. We thank you for considering us fit to be numbered among your children.

On behalf of the International Women's Fellowship of this New Kingdom, we say may thanks, honour, dominion and power be ascribed to your name, now and forever more.

FATHER'S GOSPEL

FATHER'S GOSPEL

THE REIGN OF THE KING OF KINGS

1st Lesson: Revelation 12:5

"And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne."

2nd Lesson: Revelation 19:16

"And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS."

Golden Text: Revelation 17:14

"These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them; for he is Lord of Lords, and King of Kings; and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful."

Brethren, the texts constitute the three of our revelation in this gospel. When people complain that they are suffering for Christ's sake, what do they mean? Even where the name of Jesus Christ is inscribed on all door posts, which Jesus is referred to?

If a governor is promoted, can he remain a governor? Where a bishop is promoted to the rank of an archbishop should he continue with the former designation? It is better to keep quiet where you are not sure of somebody's name or title than address him with former or wrong names and designations.

When the three wise men sought to see the child — Jesus, they asked for where they could find he who was born the King of the Jews. Our Lord Jesus Christ was the king of the Jews, but the risen Christ is the one who is to rule the world with a rod of iron. You do not seem to understand what is going on.

If you were given to Bible studies, you would have known the truth by now. Your ignorance has not enabled you to know what to do either. You are waiting for Christ but He who has come to rule is the King of Kings and Lord of lords. The Bible tells us that he had been raised above all else and given a name above every other name.

What is happening now had been made known to us through visions and prophecies yet we do not believe. He had been crowned the King of kings. The 144,000 walking with him are kings. To refer to him as an ordinary king is insulting. He is the King of kings. The recondite wisdom contained in this gospel is unique.

Whatever is shut cannot be opened and whatever is opened cannot be shut. You have been told that his new name is neither Jesus nor Christ. He is neither Messiah nor Lord. Therefore he has come as a King to rule.

The Lamb is the King of kings and Lord of Lords. Have you written on your door posts? Have you written on your garments, King of kings and Lord of Lords? Are you still doubting or do you now believe in his reign? Make your stand known whether or not you have accepted the risen Christ as the King of kings and Lord of lords who is to rule and is indeed already ruling.

Our Lord Jesus Christ came as a King of the Jews and performed duties commensurate with his office. How can he come back as a king. When you complain that you have called on the name of Jesus and he does not answer, who is there to answer you? Do you not realise that Jesus is a common Jewish name and by no means a King designate?

Saviour. It becomes clear that those who shout 'up up Jesus, down down Satan' are merely politicking.

It is now clear that even when people go about claiming that they are worshipping Jesus, and chant the name repeatedly, they do not know whom they are worshipping.

It is said that the Kingdoms of this world have become the kingdoms of Lord and His Christ wherein dwelleth the King of kings and Lord of lords. It

"It is better to keep quiet where you are not sure of somebody's name or title than address him with former or wrong names and designations."

It is difficult to comprehend. In the Brotherhood of the Cross and Star and outside, no person has written the title, King of kings and Lord of lords on his garment or doorpost. Can you realise your level of understanding? It is for this reason that the angels regard all the inhabitants of the world as obdurate and insolent.

What you are reading now is known to the heavens and on earth. It is only human beings that are yet to appreciate this truth. A close examination of the manner of birth of the child mentioned in the text will reveal the difference. His birth has distinctive characteristics.

Brethren, think about this manner of man who is the Lord of lords. To refer to him only as Lord is an insult. If you call him king, who is like unto him? If you are Lords and refer to him as same, what do you imply? If you are king and you refer to him as King, it means you are equal.

He is King of kings and Lord of lords. Call him his name and you will witness the heavens shake in joyful ecstasy and the earth tremble in reverence. This is a secret that I am revealing to you.

All others are kings but he is no longer a king. For this reason had it been said that his name shall be written on his garment.

That name is King of kings and Lord of lords. This is so because he is no longer Jesus, or Christ, or Messiah or explains why things are changed and why we should not play or joke about much longer.

The same person has to rule but with a new name, King of kings and Lord of Lords. It had also been fore-ordained that those who had been elected and shall reign with him, the 144,000 will be kings but the Christ shall be the King of kings. Do not be confused when you are told that you are a king. Have it at the back of your mind that you are a king.

Also, when you are told that you are Christ, do not be over excited. Christ means an anointed of God. As an anointed of God, you are kings, that is Christs. You as Christs are kings and our Lord Jesus Christ is the King of kings.

Trees and other creations of God have their crowns. They that overcome shall be crowned. The stars you hear about are the crowns. When you are crowned, you remain kings under the King of kings.

I wonder why humanity finds it difficult to understand this arrangement but keeps saying that when our Lord Jesus Christ comes back, he will go from place to place. Ponder over it and tell me how proper it would be for a King of kings to walk about, from place to place.

If you find a person who walks, say from Calabar to Lagos proclaiming that he is Jesus, do not believe him.

Again, should any person fly in from India or America claiming to be Jesus, disregard his claims because he is a blatant liar.

If it is not easy for an ordinary king to leave his palace, what do you think about the King of kings? He has come to rule, or do you not understand what is meant by ruling over something?

Brethren, that we do not glorify and worship the King is a culmination of lack of faith and understanding. If God were not a God of mercy, the king of peace and love, I do not know what would have become of humanity.

Many of you witness and testify to the existence of power in Brotherhood of the Cross and Star but argue that the power does not come from God. My question is, if it is not of God, where else does power emanate?

When he came to rule over the Jews, he was known and called king of the Jews but the one in your midst today is the King of kings and has come to rule over the whole world, including fishes, animals and trees. Amongst you are chiefs, you also have lords who are higher than the chiefs. Above all there is the king.

The knowledge of this secular arrangement should enable you understand the superiority of the King of kings. The scripture tells us that in there are, those who do not wish that I should rule over them.

His reign covers the angels, spirits, flesh, souls and fishes. Also, he rules over the Blacks, Whites and Coloured. The sun, moon, stars and the constellation are his subjects. Can you imagine the extent of his reign? Is it something to be toyed with?

His elected kings are those to superintend over different sections in the kingdom. The pigmentation of the King of kings is immaterial to his office. His material possession is irrelevant.

Compare what has been revealed to you to what you had heard or known earlier. Look at it this way; there are families which make up a village under the rulership of a chief. Villages are also grouped into communities or clans under the rulership of clan heads. Above them are those who head nations, having several kings under them. The Queen of England, for instance, does not interfere with the affairs of other states, say in — France or America because each of these nations is governed by a king in his own right.

When mention is made of a King of kings, it means a king whose rulership cuts across nations and beings. There is no such person in the world today and that explains why there is so much trouble and confusion in the world today. The one who is to rule over all nations and their kings, and over all creatures of God has not yet been revealed.

He is a man-child, born of a woman. He is the King of kings and Lord of lords. He is to rule eternally over all things and nothing can as much as rear its ugly head.

As he rules over Africa, will he rule Europe, Asia, the heavens, and the waters and all planes of creation. As he is seen here, is he seen by the whites and Indians?

Whatever it is in the sun, or moon, or star, or any where whatsoever, he is to be revealed equally. He is omnipresent. This confirms the scripture which says, for as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth unto the west, so shall the coming of the son of man be.

Like the lightning, all eyes shall behold his glory. Your brother, friends, relation, the Blacks and Whites will behold the king alike. Earthly rulers will no longer assume the title, king for all shall be subjected before the King of kings. His pronouncement will be final.

The state of affairs in the world today is because the world lacks a ruler and the King of kings has not yet been revealed to them.

Presently, a lot of people are questioning the possibility of the Whites and Blacks ever truly uniting. Some question the possibility of certain events. When the King of kings will be revealed, you will behold what will happen.

If there is an out-break of war, who is to fight this war? If there is division and strife, who is to unite and strengthen? It is the King of kings and Lord of lords who will accomplish all these things.

I am revealing to you what will shortly come to pass. Many people are asking the possibility of changing and uniting people. When the King of kings is revealed, you will come to full awareness of what will happen.

If you travel to London, you will find him there. Proceed to India from London and you will find him. When you come back to Nigeria you will find that he did not just arrive before you but lives there too.

In a gathering or meeting of any sort, he does not only partake but directs the discussion and proceedings. This had been the plan of God at creation. At this end of time, His plan has to be manifested. So it is that whoever will despise his rulership and authority will cease to exist.

It is for this same reason that it has been said that when he shall be revealed, all eyes shall see him and be like him. This is the revelation.

All your non-conformist activities and insults will cease. This explains why I continually say that Brotherhood is yet to begin and that I am not the one responsible for all the works manifesting in the world today. When his time shall have come, you will see things for yourself.

The birth of this child in this generation differs from the birth of the child you have been told in the other generation. It is, therefore, a great error for one to seek to compare the times of the birth in this era with that of the past generations.

This time is different from the other age. His reign is not similar to the other reign. What is happening now is completely new and fulfils the scriptures which say behold all things are become new.

He uses a rod of iron to rule the whole world. There are no courts, hospitals, penal institutions that will be functional during his era. Who will inhabit the prisons then? Read the first lesson again.

1st Lesson: Revelation 12:5

"And she brought forth a man — child who was to rule all nations of the world with a rod of iron. And her child was caught up unto God and to his throne."

Brethren, have you taken note of what the scripture says, Now ponder over this, "...And first begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him."

The reference makes it clear that our Lord Jesus Christ will not come as a king but as King of kings and Lord of lords. He is no more coming to pray for people, heal, preach, sing or wrought miracles. His assignment this time around is to reign and rule over all creations.

Do you still not understand what it means to rule over? You have been told that he will rule over the whole world with an iron rod, nothing will be left out. His kingship is not from man. Moses has no part to play. It is neither from the world nor from the angels. No person has a hand in his kingship.

This era had been ordained before the coming of the son of man. All the things written about him will come to pass and all knees must bow to him.

Do not suppose that I am the person, because even as I stand before you, I do not know him but He is here with us. Albeit, we do not know him. It is out of our ignorance of his presence in our midst that we go about causing trouble and live abominable lives. However, the spiritual realms and indeed all creations of God except man, know and revere this man — child.

Even the man-child himself does not know that he is the King of kings and Lord of lords. When he eventually finds himself on the throne, he will be equally surprised and at a loss to explain how he got there. Nobody is responsible for the daily occurrences but they manifest as had been ordained in heaven. This name is inscribed on the foreheads of all the angels and other heavenly hosts. It is only on man that this name is yet to be inscribed. Brethren, the second lesson.

2nd Lesson Revelation 19:16

"And he had on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

God intends to rule over the world in a manner most wonderful and incomprehensible. A local adage says, should one wait for the moonlight, he will eventually travel in the darkness of the night. Consequently, all those who seek to investigate and research into the deity of the one presently in our midst should continue to do so. On my own part, I have no investigations to make for I know that this is the time ordained by God for these things to happen.

You will witness that all the knowledge, plans, powers and hopes of the world have been completely put to nought. It is only His design that stands.

You should no longer complain about others but think of yourself, and the position you have now found yourself. Where you have found yourself is the position kept for you. You should no longer bother yourself seeking for knowledge everywhere. It is unprofitable and obsolete to do so.

There is no other instrument of office or authority other than what is written that he is the "King of kings and Lord of lords." This is the new name attached to his office and this name is written all over you and on your foreheads such that whoever sees this name has to bow and revere God.

If you persist in seeking to see him or claim to have seen him, you will be disappointed as you can never see him. You are simply deceiving yourself as you cannot see him.

Nevertheless, he is the one controlling everything about you. He controls the hairs of your head, your fingers, nails, mind and all that you do yet you have not known him.

You will recall that during the time of our Lord Jesus Christ those he called often resisted, giving one excuse or the other. In this generation, nobody calls any of you. You make the move voluntarily. A sister testified to the fact that she had sworn never to bow down to our Lord, whether it be in this life, in the dear land of during another incarnation. According to this sister she had been born into the Apostolic Church and her family and all her friends are members of Apostolic.

Amongst other considerations, she reasoned that her husband was occupying a very high position in the Apostolic Church and she therefore, could not imagine herself sacrificing the glory of her husband's office to worshipping in Brotherhood.

Eventually her husband came to this fold and all attempts to get the wife to embrace Brotherhood along with him failed. Other people also sought to bring her here but failed but today she has declared that God is no to be toyed with and that as long as he lives she will follow the Gd in Brotherhood.

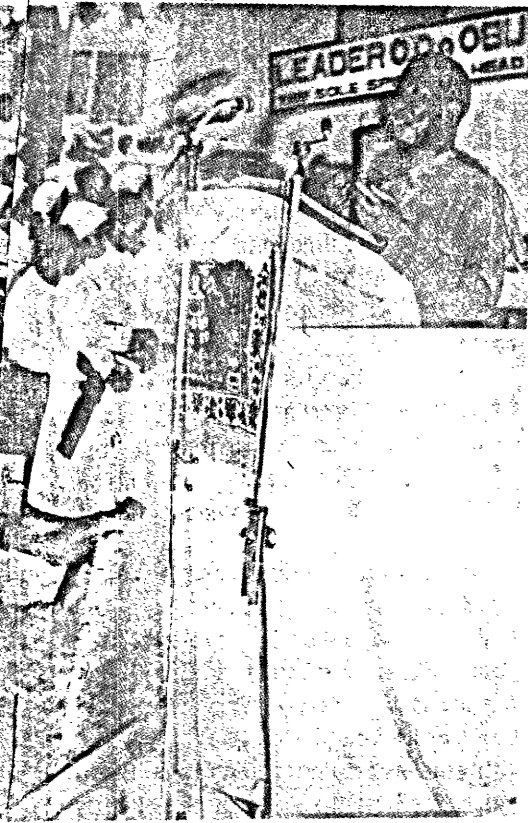

You are therefore advised not to plead with your son, father or any other person to come with you to Brotherhood. Do not give anybody even a mite to follow you. Leave every man to himself for the King of kings and Lord of lords is arod. This is no longer the time for preating but the period for the King of lgs and Lord of lords to rule. His assiment is to rule.

He has come to rule and execute judgement on all. He has me to reward the just and place evman in his position and no one can question whatever he does.

Many people argue that onan only be what He wants one to be. Is not government in the new world, with the Lord of lords on the throne.

the time for pride, neither is it the time for one to claim responsibility for doing anything. Rather, it is the time for us to remain in absolute humility and reverence over the goings on in our midst.

Even those in the Rosicrucian Order, AMORC, bear witness to the fact that those of you in Brotherhood do not know where you are nor the one in your midst. Truly, if you were to know yourselves or where you are, nobody will speak vain words or misbehave at all.

Our only saving grace lies in the fact that he rules with love, he rules with grace, he rules with peace, he rules with humility, patience and other Godly virtues. But none of us here gives him glory, none of us honours or respects him and our actions show that we do not know where we are. He has done a number of things to enable us realize the presence of a great being in our midst.

Presently, the Asians, Americans, and Europeans have recognised his presence on earth and even revere Him than you sitting before me here who claim to have seen and known Him. It is not a great lesson to you that wherever you write to seeking wealth, protection and other good things of life you are referred to this place.

You visit a necromancer and a juju-priest and request that he should prepare charm for you but in reply he directs you to 34, Ambo Street, Calabar. Even the native doctor will testify that all you find in his shrine are empty and powerless. Should you approach the mermaids in the river to help you acquire money, they will reply that they are preparing themselves to go and work for God in the church and will invite you to join them. They will further advise you not to come to them any longer for money but to go to 34, Ambo and receive whatever you desire.

People have been informed that they should attend spiritual churches and revere God greatly and that there is great fear amongst all the creations of God except human beings.

You cannot find any place where it is written that this reign is that of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Rather it is written that the King of kings and Lord of lords is the one to rule but I say to you that this King of kings is the same person you know as Jesus Christ. The title King of kings and Lord of lords is only a New Name of His.

For he was the one crucified and he shed his precious blood. What happens now is to fulfil that which had been written that they will wage war with the lamb but the lamb shall overcome them. Have you not seen the fulfilment of all that was written.

I am telling you this to awaken your understanding because even as you are reading through the gospel, you are still doubting. But all the inhabitants of the world including all of you in Brotherhood are waging war with Him but he has overcome.

And powers are vested in him which is why the inhabitants of the world testify that power abounds in Brotherhood but they do not know the source of this power. You the members confirm that there is power but you add that this power has not been given to you.

Many of you came here to seek for power so that you can use it for your selfish purposes but you have not found that power. Have you ever witnessed somebody who, without administering injections and drugs on you or performing any magical feat, takes away all your problems and overcomes all difficulties for you? Mere prayers you can no longer offer yet he does everything for you.

Snr. Pastor S. I. Etuk understands what I am talking about for there was someone in their family whose desire was to eliminate all the family members. This man came back after a long sojourn in Lagos with all the powers he was able to acquire from his membership of secret societies but what is the case today. All the people he sought to destroy have overcome him and are alive to this day.

Beloved brethren, you are confronted with people who are complaining bitterly that someone seeks their lives or that mermaids and ghosts are after them but you here are simply going about your daily businesses without any problems. All these happen because that name King of kings and Lord of lords is found written on your forehead.

This explains why all the angels fear you, death itself fears you and you can go wherever you please and no harm comes to you. This privilege does not derive from fasting, or prayer. It does not need any special acts from you. That is why people keep asking how these things happen.

You have heard from the Scriptures how four angels were ordered to hold up the winds on the four corners of the earth until the children of God are sealed on their foreheads. I do not intend to labour you, read the golden text whether or not you will believe I do not know. You are all Thomases but I say to you that this time around, Thomas is in trouble. Find out from Snr. Pastor S. I. Etuk who has been here for more than 20 years. Let him tell you if he has found anything. Those of you still researching are only wasting your time. The angels revere God greatly and there is great fear amongst all the creations of God except human beings.

You cannot find any place that written this reign is that of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Rather it is written that the King of kings and Lord of lords is the one to rule but I say to you that this King of kings is the same person you know as Jesus Christ. The title King of kings and Lord of lords is only a New Name of His.

"These shall make war with the lamb, and the lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful."

This man-child, you have been told is the same person and there is no other person. The only difference is that this time around he has come with a new name, that is King of kings and Lord of lords. Like you have already been told, that He will come to rule over all creatures, this is the time for Him to rule.

Have you not heard that all the churches connived to fight against Brotherhood but that they failed. This is the case because it had been written that they shall wage war with the lamb and the lamb shall overcome them.

You will recall that some people came to testify sometime ago how they fought against Brotherhood. In like manner, all of them will come to testify so that what has been written that the world shall wage war against the Lamb but the Lamb shall overcome them might be fulfilled at this close of age. Do I need to remind you of Professor Bassey and Professor Assasu Inyang Ibom. They later, together with Professor Bazie of India came here to testify about how they fought with the lamb but He overcame them. You are here completely ignorant of the goings on.

As you are reading through this gospel, maybe your families have sworn to eliminate you, your village is fighting against you and indeed every person who sees you wages war against you but since you have no eyes and are ignorant of this, are you not going about hale and hearty.

The women here and even the little children go about playing and singing, completely oblivious of the fact that the world is fighting against them and are boasting that they have power to eliminate them but because of their faith, the Lamb overcomes for them. You have heard about a powerful village called Eniong in Odukpani Local Government Area of Cross River State. The inhabitants of this village which happens to be the birth place of Senior Deaconess Mary Mong had sworn not only to eliminate Deaconess Mong but also to resist any attempt at establishing Brotherhood in their village. Deaconess Mong herself even feared to go to her birth-place. What is the case today? The lamb has used only one sister to shake the whole of this supposedly powerful village and the people of Eniong have now embraced Brotherhood.

It is the same story in Arochukwu and several other places where the people had sworn not to see Brotherhood established in their lifetime nor even allow its followers to exist but the lamb as small as he is has overcome all of them because he is the King of kings. And you have equally overcome because you are his children: Do you know that the children of a king are themselves Princes and kings in their own right.

Have you seen any person, village, town or city that wants to hear about or see Brotherhood? No church denomination wants to even hear about your faith yet the moment you step into any place, they all bow to you. You do not even pray or fast, yet you overcome them. This happens because it had not been written that they shall war over him and shall overcome him. Were this to have been the case, then, would they have overcome you? But it had been pre-ordained from the foundations of the world that the lamb shall overcome

"The birth of this child is different from the birth of the child you have been told in the other generation. It is an error to seek to compare the times of the birth in this era with that of the past generations."
